

Stolen Honor, an anti-Kerry "documentary" is propaganda and not appropriate for public broadcasting. Such outrageously biased programming is a violation of the public trust. If you do not change your position to interfere with the presidential election by broadcasting these lies about John Kerry I will never again watch any programming on the channels you own.